Dear Sir Peter Soulsby,

RE: Leicester Independent Review

The undersigned Masaajid (i.e Mosques), Islamic Institutions and Scholars group of Leicester cautiously welcomes the announcement of the review into the recent violence in our city, announced by the City Mayor, Sir Peter Soulsby.

We also welcome the appointment of a group of academics from both of our illustrious Universities to carry out this review. We have some comment on the terms of reference and will make this directly to the reviewers.

As a group of places of worship, institutes and faith leaders who would very much like to move on positively from these occurrences, we are disappointed with the decision by some amongst the Hindu community to not engage with this process.

We look forward to engaging positively with both, the review process and our brothers and sisters in the Hindu community.

Yours sincerely,

Undersigned Masaajid & Institutes
